Submissions for the EUNIS•26 Congress are now open!

We encourage submissions within any of our three tracks addressing digitalisation in higher education:

- 1. Learning, Teaching and Research
- 2. Governance and Policy
- 3. IT and Infrastructure

Call for Session Proposals

SHARE YOUR IDEAS. INSPIRE THE COMMUNITY.

Submissions for presentations, workshops and demonstrations are now open! If you are advancing innovation, creating impact or championing excellence in digitalisation in higher education, governance or IT infrastructure, we want to hear from you.

Submit your session proposal on our website.

Submission deadline: 1 March 2026

Call for Scientific Papers

ADVANCE KNOWLEDGE. SHAPE THE RESEARCH AGENDA.

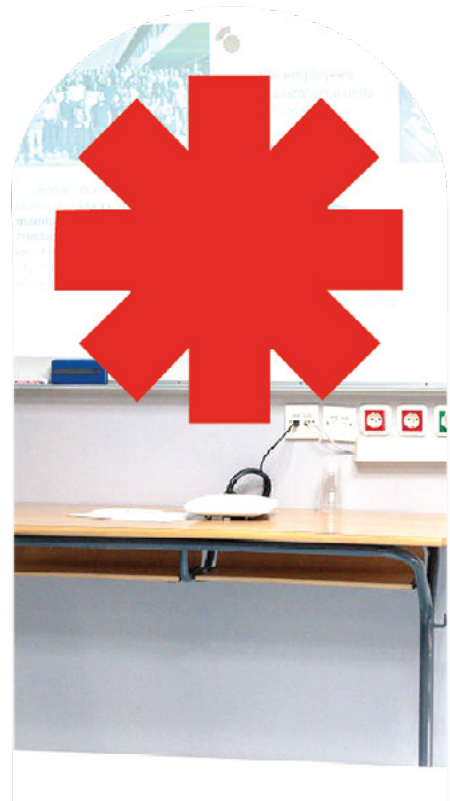

Submissions for scientific papers are now open! If you are conducting research addressing digitalisation in higher education, send in your paper. Submitted papers will undergo a peer-review process conducted by qualified academic experts.

The top 10 papers will be selected for presentation at the congress. All accepted papers will be published in the EPiC Series in Computing. In addition, one submission will receive the EUNIS Best Paper Award. Papers submitted by regular EUNIS members that demonstrate outstanding implementation of information systems in higher education may also qualify for the EUNIS Elite Award.

Submit your paper via EasyChair and ensure your paper follows EUNIS · 26 instructions for authors.

Submit your manuscript via EasyChair: Submission link.

Submission deadline: 1 March 2026

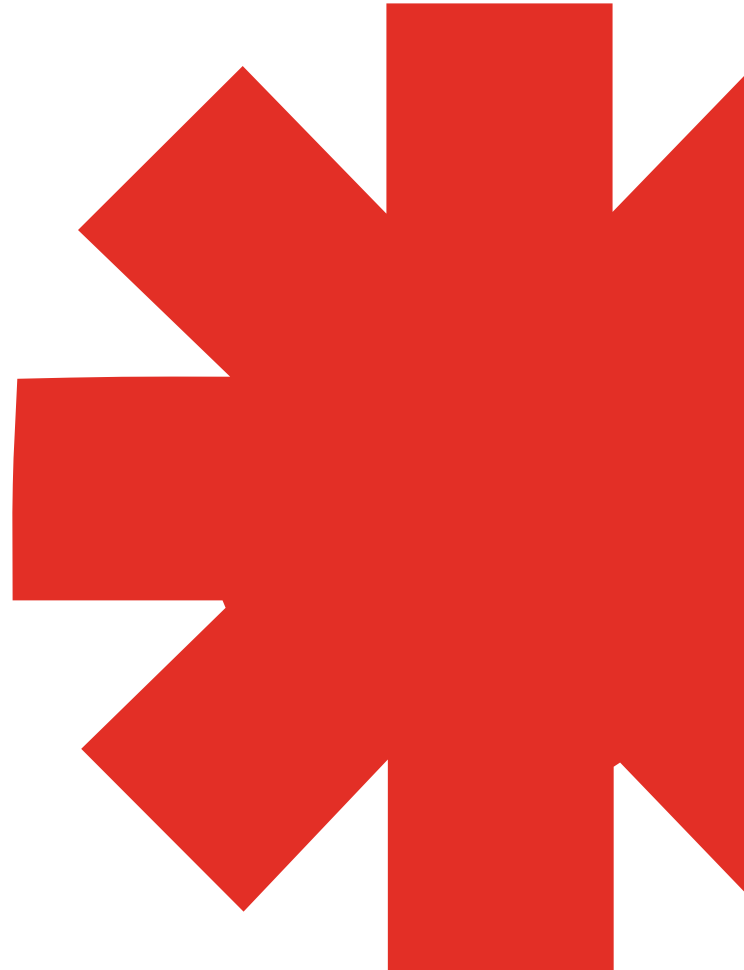

Why Contribute?

By presenting your work at EUNIS 2026, you will:

- ✦ Connect with a European community of leaders, higher education professionals, IT experts and researchers.
- ✦ Share cutting-edge work and enhance your institution's visibility.
- ✦ Broaden your network, build new connections and energise your future projects.

We look forward to your contributions and insights! Let's make EUNIS•26 an engaging celebration of innovation, collaboration and freedom to shape the future of higher education together!
