

Benchmarking across borders

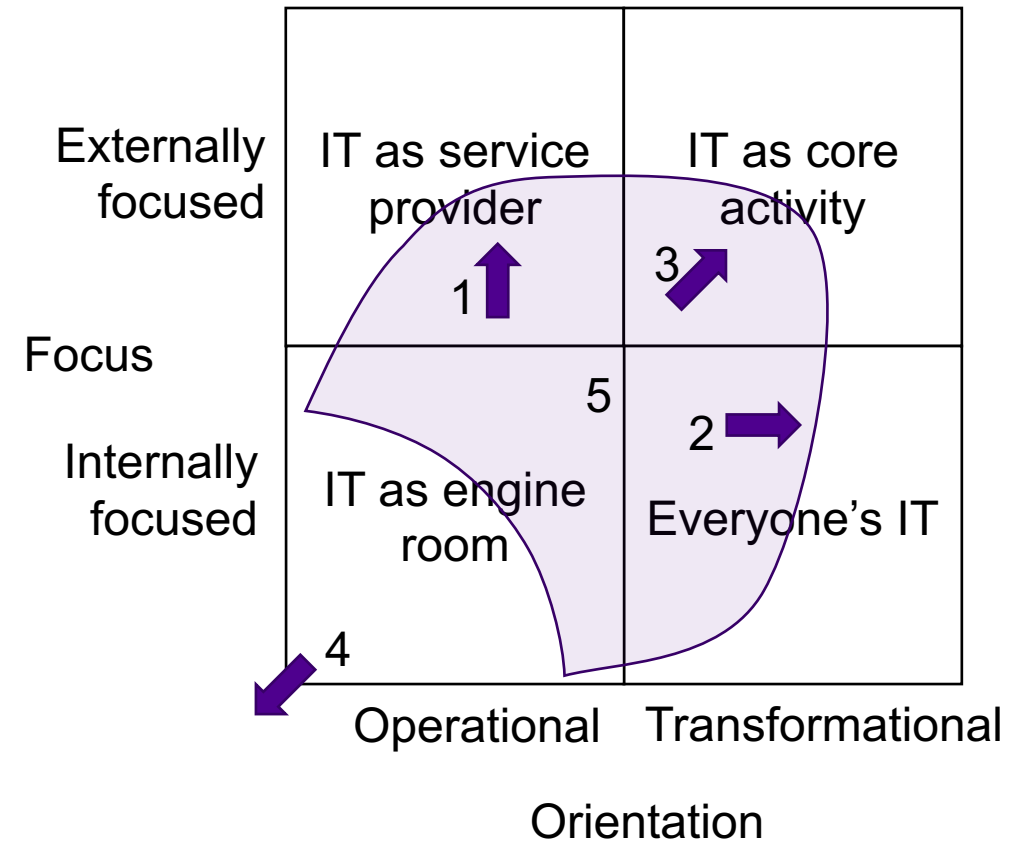

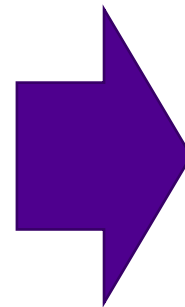

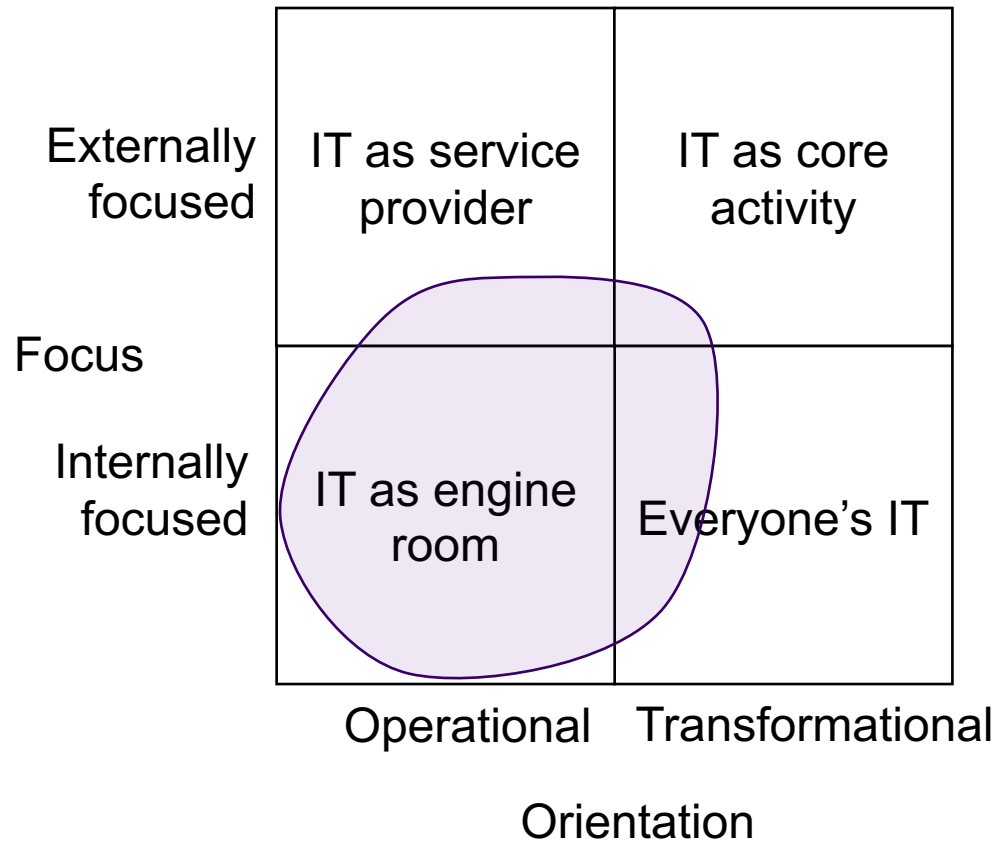

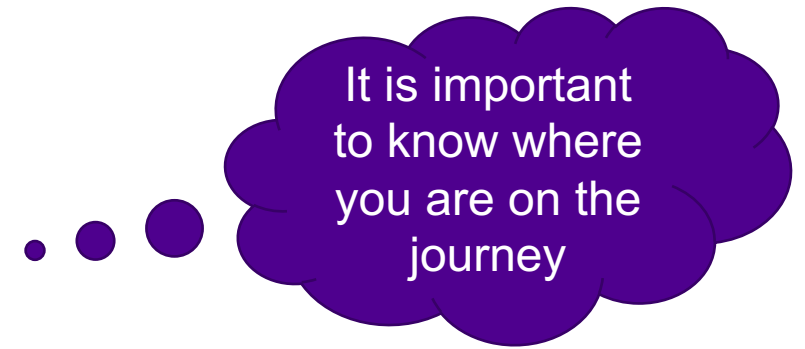

23 November 2021
Pekka Kähköpuro

Pekka Kähkipuro

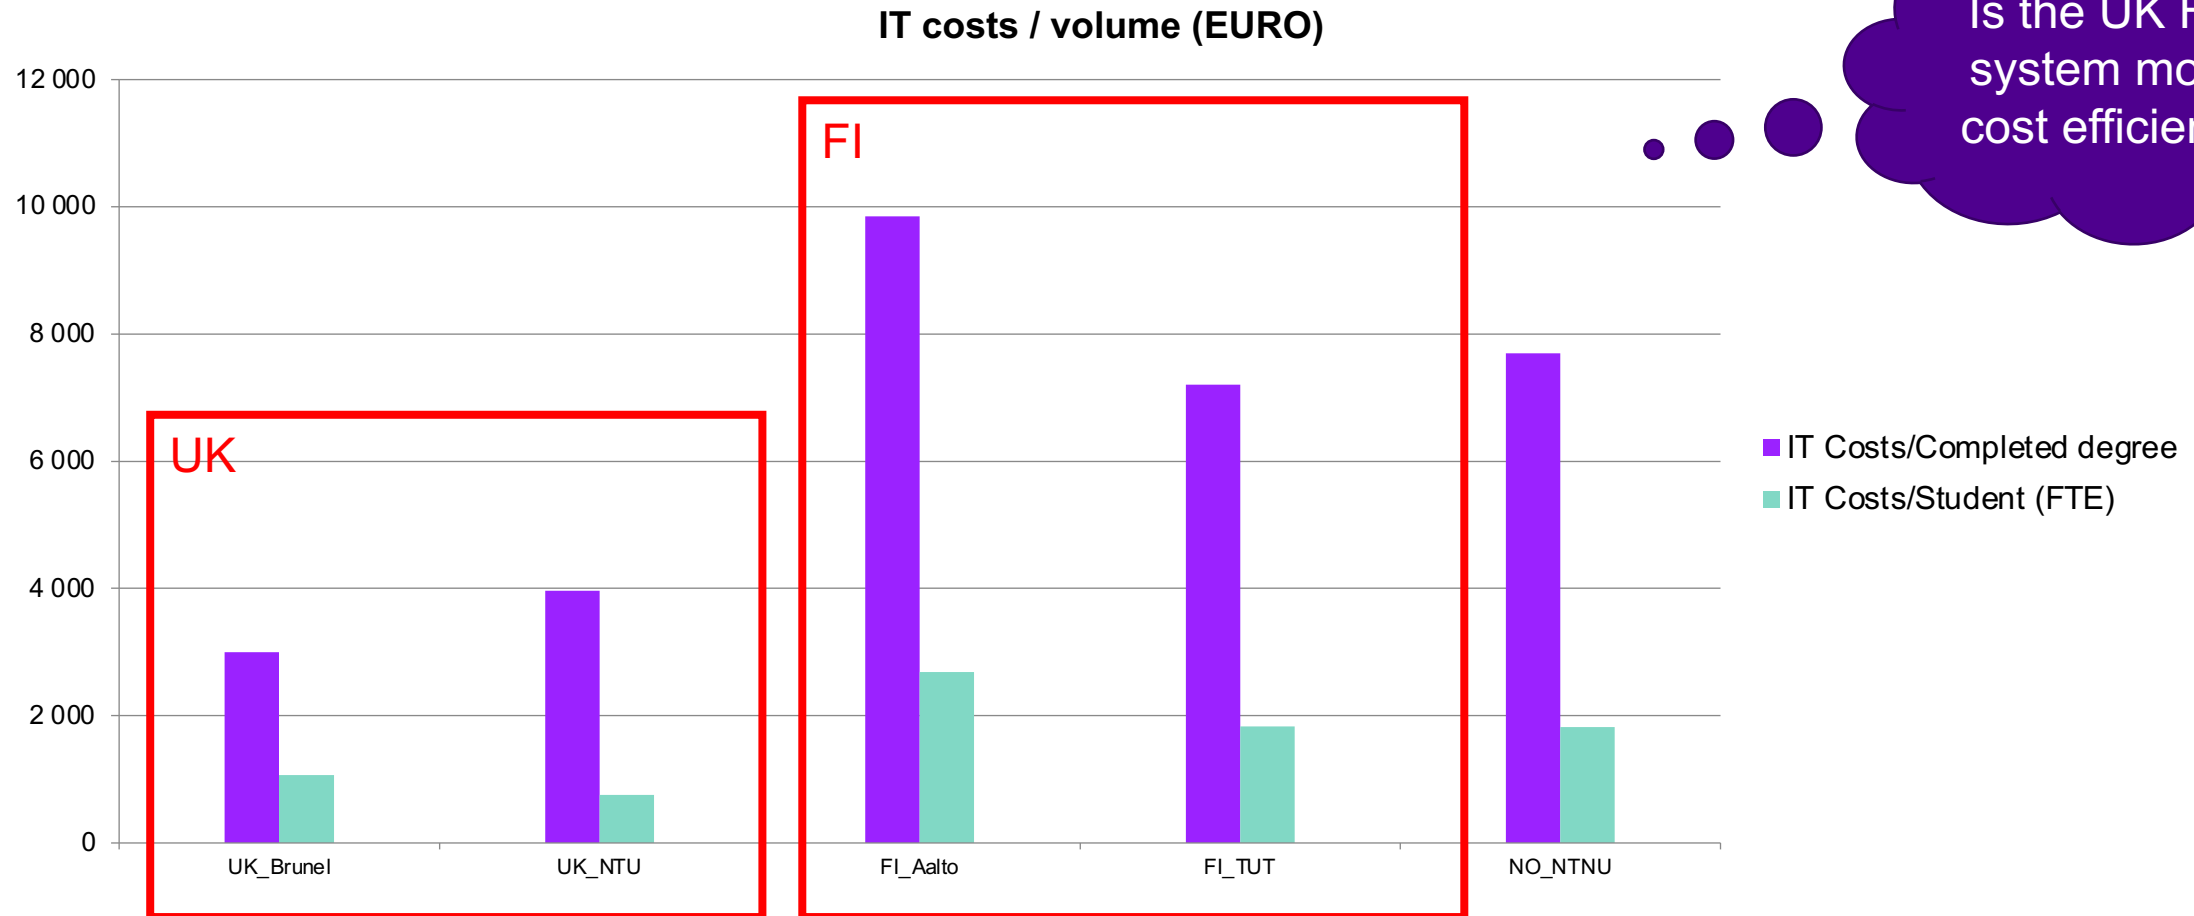

- Work history
 - CIO, Tampereen yliopisto, 2021 – present
 - CIO, Brunel University London, 2016 – 2021
 - Director of IT, Aalto University, 2010 – 2015
 - Nokia Siemens Networks, 2005 – 2010
 - Director of Business Development / Technology, SysOpen Digia, 2000 – 2005
 - Researcher, Lecturer, University of Helsinki 1995 – 2000
- Background
 - PhD, Computer Science, University of Helsinki, 2000
 - Executive Secretary, EUNIS
 - Fellow of the BCS

Direction of Travel

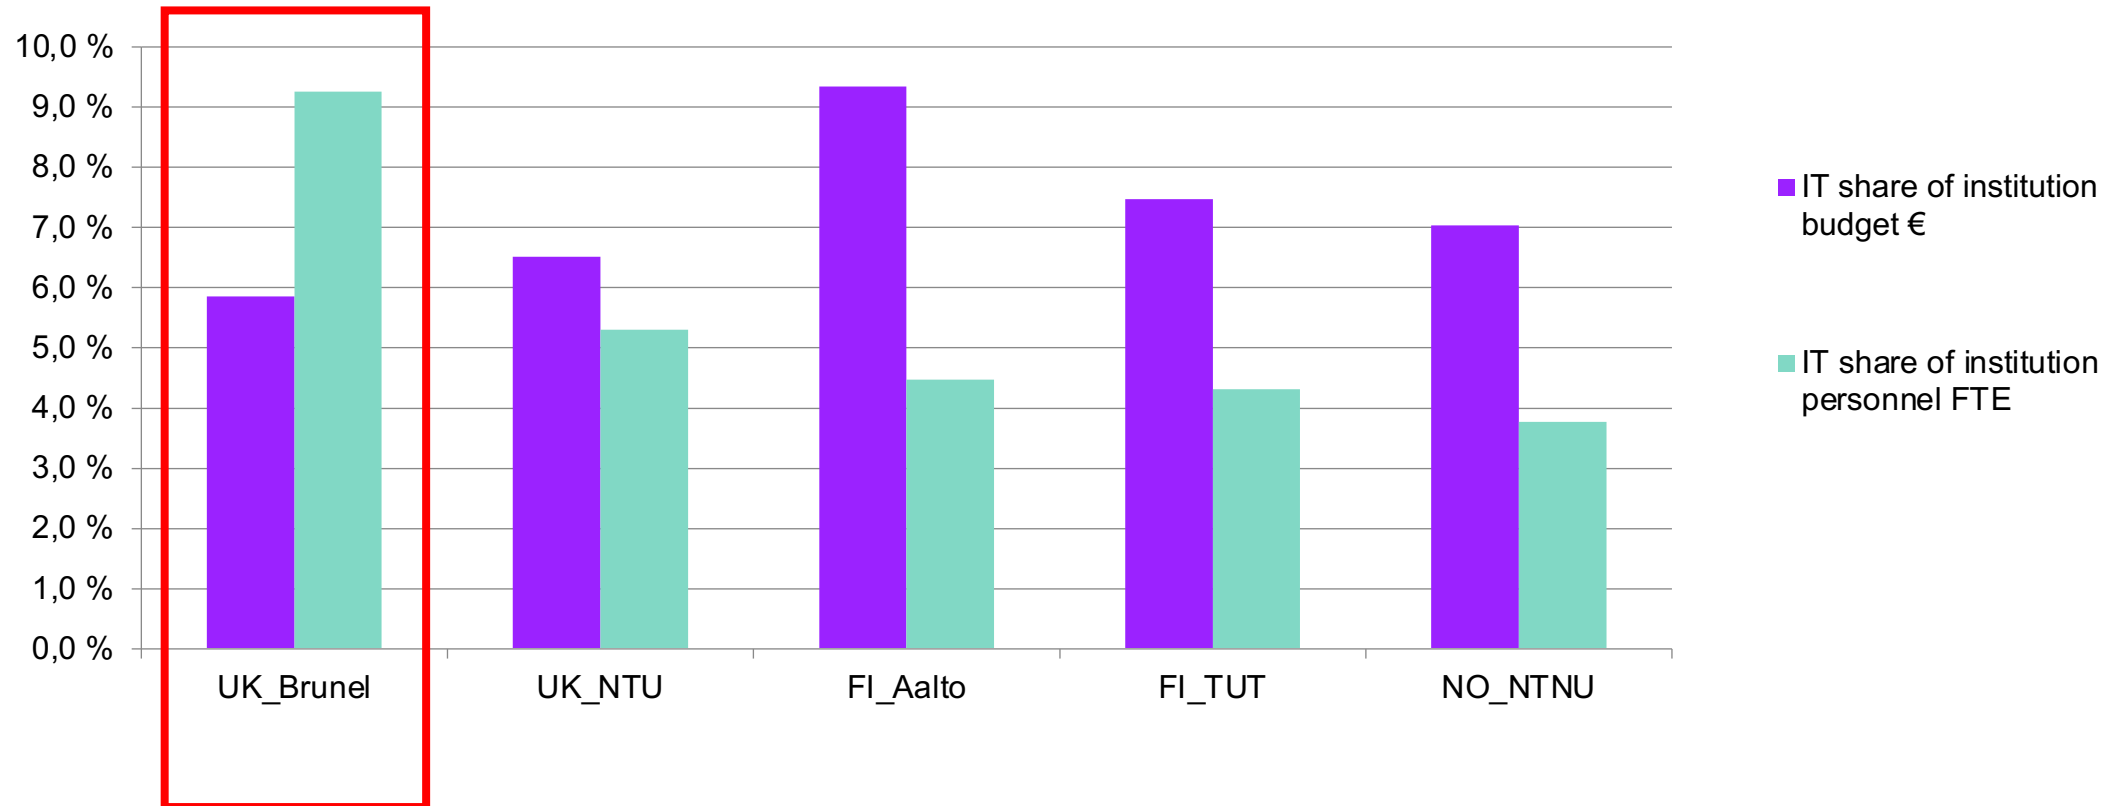

Countries are different

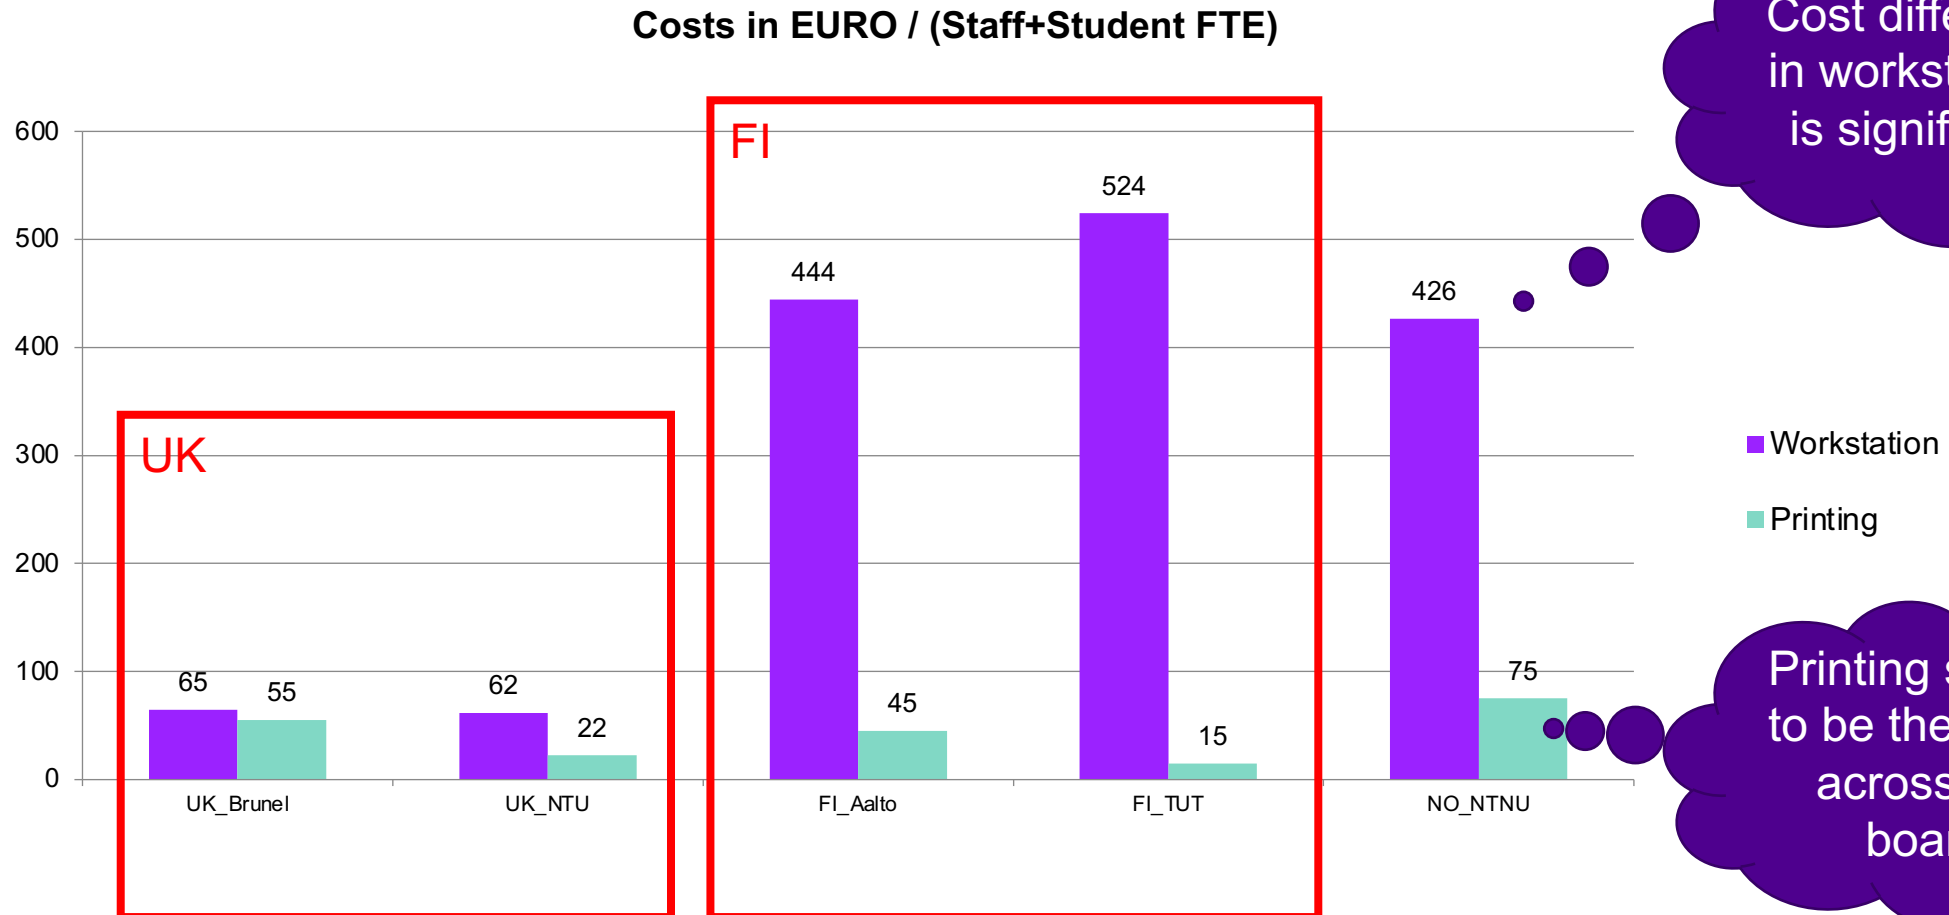

Is the UK HE system more cost efficient?

A genuine finding?

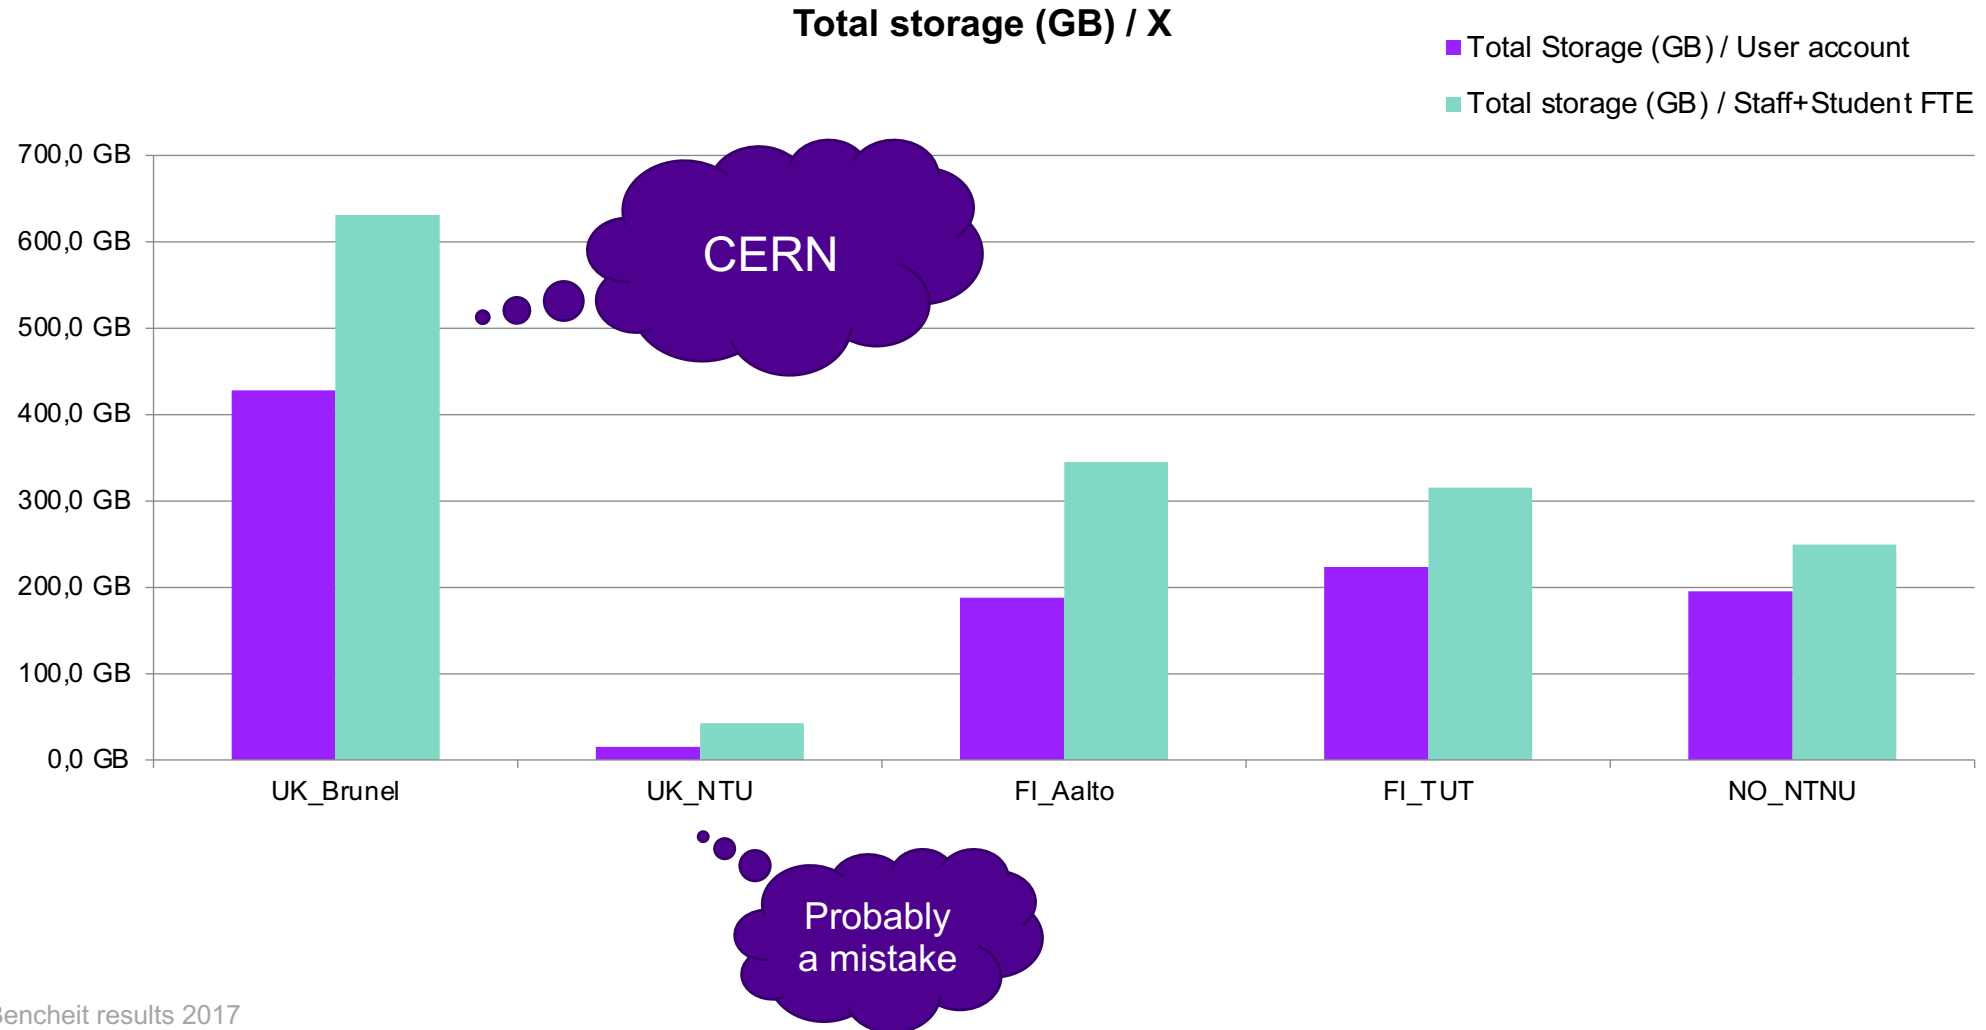

Ratio: IT / Institution (%)

Where do we spend our money?

Know your institution!

Conclusions

- There are clear differences between countries, and you need to be aware of them (e.g., HE funding models)
- Certain metrics seem to be comparable
- If you understand the context, highly useful information can be extracted from the benchmark
- But you need to know your institution before taking action

Human Potential
Unlimited.